John M. Olymer and G. W. Finley, with ruling elders T. E. McCoole and John S. Pancake, appointed by the Presbytery of Winchester at its meeting at Petersburg, to crassias a church at this piace, held its meeting on Sunday the 19th inst. Fourteen members, together with six baptized children, were organized into a church to be known as the Presbyterian church of Davis, W. Va. At the election of officers William R Wilson, formerly an elder in the First Presbyterian church in Cumberland, Md., James Parsons, formerly an elder in the Romney church, and A. D. Collins, formerly an elder in the Elk Garden church, were chosen elders. J. Neil Oliver, formerly a descon in the Ilancock church, Maryland, and Herman A. Myer. Wm. Swartz and A. C.
